Valdivia and Corral

Rivers and turrets feature prominently in the impressive landscape of Valdivia. It's the oldest city at these southerly latitudes anywhere in the world, and enjoys a delightfully verdant setting of meadows and woodlands.

Fill your lungs with pure, clean air as you sail down Valdivia's main river, the Calle-Calle. Enjoy fine seafood at the riverside market and have fun watching sea lions on the promenade. Experience a festival of flavors as you sample craft beers, wild boar, delicious steak tartare and handmade chocolates.

Visit the exciting Museum of Contemporary Art, built on the site of an historic brewery.

Immerse yourself in the past as you explore the castles and stone fortresses of the Corral peninsula, with its eye-catching landscapes, fascinating history and a rich cultural heritage. Ramble through stunning millennial coastal forests of larch and olivillo. Visit its attractive beaches and traditional fishing coves, and discover the many activities which can be enjoyed all year round.

Mercado Fluvial

Here, in Valdivia's main market, you can find different types of seafood brought directly by the boats, which come down the river with fresh goods. In the Mercado Fluvial you'll also find arts and crafts, restaurants and all kinds of local products that make it unique and are the reason it was named a Chilean National Monument.

Jardín Botánico UACh.

In this spectacular botanical garden of the Universidad Austral de Chile, ten hectares, you will marvel with more than one thousand native and introduced plant species. Also, after walking through the park you can learn names of trees, shrubs and plants; in an environment which is bordered by the Cau-Cau River. The entrance to the garden is liberated.

Museums

The Museo de la Exploración Rudolph Amandus Philippi has its place in the historic House Schüller (built in 1914), which exhibits the work of Rudolph Amandus Philippi, learned naturalist. Open Hours: Tuesday to Sunday 10:00 - 13:00, 14:00-18:00. Admission 2-3 USD (depending on currency exchange).

The Museo Histórico y Antropológico Mauricio Van de Maele, is located in the Andwandter House (National Historical Monument). The rooms show valuable and different collections that take visitors to discover the history of society in southern Chile. Open Hours: Tuesday to Sunday 10:00 - 13:00, 14:00 - 18:00 hrs. Admission 2-3 USD (depending on currency exchange).

The Museo de Arte Contemporáneo (MAC), located on the grounds of the former brewery Andwandter, contains the expressions of contemporary art in local, regional, national and international exhibitions in the field of painting, graphics, sculpture, art-video, multimedia and installations. Open Hours: Tuesday to Sunday 10:00 - 13:00, 14:00 - 20:00 hrs. Admission 2-3 USD (depending on currency exchange).

The Museo Submarino O'Brien. This museum is mounted inside of a submarine of the Navy of Chile, which is anchored in the Valdivia Riverside. This ship is 90 meters long. In its years of operations, it had a staff of 8 officers and 65 crew. After visiting this unique museum you can learn about the lives of the crew under the sea. They work from Tuesday to Sunday from 10:00 to 13:00 and 14:00 to 20:00 hrs. During the summer works all day open all day from 10:00 to 20:00 hrs.

Spanish Fortifications

Travel back into Valdivia's past by walking around the area's fortifications. Be amazed by one of the largest fort and castle systems built by the Spaniards in the entire continent. Visit the buildings that are still standing today and prepare to be impressed by this great defense system that protected the area from the threatening pirates of the 17th and 18th centuries.

Visit Mancera Island, Corral and Niebla forts. Walk around them and go into their museums to learn more about the history of this place and to take pictures of the old cannons that are still standing. For more information contact the tourist office (CIT).
